DEMOCRATS OVERCOME LARGE SUBURBAN GOP VOTE

Businessmen to frolic in variety show here

Three day session of 'Everybody's Here' starts Thursday night

Arlington Heights businessmen will be cutting capers on the stage of Arlington Heights high school auditorium tonight (Thursday) and Friday and Saturday, November 4, 5 and 6 at 8:30 p. m.

The occasion will be Arlington Heights Lions club presentation of the comedy-farce "Everybody's Here" for the benefit of Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Lions community fund.

Part of the proceeds from the production will go to the Girl and Boy Scouts permanent fund. This fund has nothing to do with the general girl scout fund, drive for which is now in progress in Arlington Heights.

Bulging biceps peeking from sleek evening gowns, heavy bosoms disguising husky males, and curves and wigs will add finishing touches to a parade of characters which should keep the audience in continuous laughter. The show is a successor to "Womanless Wedding", presented here last year by a similar all-male cast.

FROM THE opening scene, showing two hick janitors preparing the town hall for an old-home-week celebration until crowning of the winner of the beauty contest before the final curtain, there won't be a dull moment in the hour and one-half entertainment.

The gala beauty contest will not only feature lovelies from surrounding towns, but will also reveal the identity of Miss Arlington Heights, who has not appeared at any rehearsal, but will make "her" bow at the Thursday night premiere.

Auditorium doors will open at 7 p. m. Tickets still may be obtained from Lions and cast members or at the door, and are also on sale at most business houses.

After opening music by Arlington Heights high school Little German band, here is the cast that will trip onto the stage:

Two Arlington Heights people injured at Itasca in car accident

A head-on collision of cars driven by Gustave Behrens, 75, Rt. 1, Arlington Heights, and Ira Dunton, 44, 2212 Hubbard St., Chicago, occurred last Saturday evening just south of Itasca.

Dunton, going south on Mill rd., had stopped in the middle of the road, Behrens, going north on Mill rd., hit Dunton head on. Behrens maintained that the Dunton car had only one headlight. Both cars were badly damaged.

Riding "with Behrens were Mary Behrens and Alma Behrens. Both were treated at Memorial hospital, Elmhurst, for injuries. Mary Behrens suffered small abrasions on the forehead and a minor chest injury. Alma Behrens was treated for abrasions on the right leg.

No one in the Dunton car was injured.

LET'S RING THE BELL!
FOR ARLINGTON HTS. GIRL SCOUTS

DOOR TO DOOR
SOLICITATION
NOV. 8 to NOV. 13
1948.

Mayor Albert W. Goedke, Arlington Heights, endorsed the girl scout drive for funds in a statement to the Herald Wednesday: "I hope the people of Arlington Heights will respond as generously as they can to the fund drive for Girl Scouts."

Nine leaders of solicitation committees for a Girl Scout fund drive in Arlington Heights have been chosen, and two others will be appointed before the week-long drive starts November 8, Edward Schumacher and Al Kehe, chairman of the drive, announced this week.

Captains in the $2,500 goal drive are Mrs. H. E. Mahummed, South Haddon avenue; James A. Brown, 400 S. Walnut; Sylvester Greschner, 112 N. Pine; Mrs. Q. K. Ford, 621 N. State road; James H. Speers, 932 N. Highland; Robert R. Lockwood, 818 N. Harvard; Mrs. E. H. Jung, 710 N. Ridge; Mrs. John Angeloff, 125 S. Vail; and Mrs. K. G. Wessling, 1105 N. Harvard.

They and their committees will canvass all merchants and families in Arlington Heights for contributions to cover administrative expenses for Girl Scout work in this community for 1949. "With a hoped-for contribution of $2 per family, we expect to go way over the top," Ed Schumacher stated. "However, any amount will be gladly accepted by solicitors, and practically all the money will be spent in Arlington Heights."

THE INCREASED budget this year is needed to provide scouting for 300 Arlington Heights girls.

"Several organized troops in Arlington Heights still cannot start with Scout activities be-

Car collides with train but driver is unhurt

LeRoy Kampert, 25, of Barrington, whose car crashed into the side of a train at 6:45 a. m. Tuesday walked away from the wreck only with minor knee injuries.

The accident occurred at the Euclid avenue-Northwestern highway crossing, where the railroad has blinker signals but no crossing gates.

Kampert, who works at Meyer Dairy at Arlington Heights, was on his way to work and was driving east on Northwest highway. He turned south on Euclid avenue, but told police on account of the early mist and fog he did not see the oncoming train, nor was he able to put on the brakes to stop his auto from ramming into the loop-bound locomotive.

HE ALSO STATED he did not hear the crossing signals. Kampert was taken to Dr. Elfeld for examination for possible injuries. The chassis of his auto, a 1941 Ford convertible, was completely demolished, with damage estimated at $400.

In the years Arlington Heights had two pairs of crossing gates at each railroad intersection in the loop, the village has maintained an accident-free record.

The village recently turned down a request by the railroad to eliminate the left-hand gate of each pair in four Arlington Heights crossings, at Vail, Dunton, S. Evergreen and South State road.

Village board members, in response to requests from school and civic officials, felt the railroad crossings request to "modernize" crossing installations would actually be a hazard to the safety of local residents.

The village at the same time had drawn the attention of the railroad to the need for crossing gates at the Euclid street intersection.

A letter from the village to the railroad stated: With the Grigsby Allison factory now employing several people who drive to and from work, and with the growth of the village, traffic has increased at Euclid street to a point that gates should be installed.

Parents invited to visit classes during week-long open house

Arlington Heights high and grade schools will observe American Education week from November 7 through 13 by extending an invitation to parents to "visit your schools."

"Education is indispensable to maintaining a democratic way of life, and this week is set aside to show how educators and parents may work together to insure the future of their own community," R. E. Clabaugh, superintendent of elementary schools, stated.

THE 1948 THEME is "Strengthening the foundations of freedom," and the seven-point objective program includes (1) learning to live together, (2) improving the educational program, (3) securing qualified teachers, (4) providing adequate finance, (5) safeguarding America, (6) promoting health and safety and (7) developing worthy family life.

Open house will be held continuously at the three school buildings, and parents and friends are requested to visit any classes they wish.

Is police car 107 headed for 'last mile'?

Arlington Heights police, who recently acquired a brand new squad car, may have a second wish for a new car fulfilled.

Somebody obviously is working on the deal, because police have been having difficulty keeping car 107, the older 1946 model, on its "feet."

Last week a chauffeur of a village truck, bumped his truck into police car 107 and damaged the trunk of the official auto. The damage was repaired.

Three days later another auto backed into car 107, damaging the front left fender and grill of police car. Bill for damages was paid by the citizen.

Variety stars get 'in the mood'

Seven members of the all-star local cast of "Everybody's Here" stopped to pose during dress rehearsal Thursday afternoon. First performance of the variety show, sponsored by Arlington Heights Lions club, will be tonight, Thursday, at Arlington Heights high school.

Cast members getting in the mood are (seated on floor) David Zimmerman as a 1948 girl.

Teenagers 'ring in' Halloween

More than 450 teenagers, members of Ramble Inn youth center, had a "bang up" time Saturday night at the Ramble Inn Halloween party at Arlington Heights field house.

Party-goers at the non-costume affair spent the evening participating in turtle and hot-dog races, visiting 2 fortune tellers, and trying their luck at dart and ball throwing games, two mer-guessing contests, a bean-guessing contest. Stage money was used for all games at the carnival-theme party.

One outstanding event of the evening was the mystery man contest during which guests identified "Mr. Schmo" by progressive clues.

Students who attended were Ramble Inn members from high school district 214, including Arlington Heights, Wheeling, Mt. Prospect and Prospect Heights.

"Youth Center members wish to thank merchants who contributed prizes for the booths and parents who helped out the night of the party," Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell, co-directors, stated. "Their generous cooperation helped make the party a success."

A feature article on the party appears in this week's issue under "Ramble Inn Round with Ramble Inn."

Mrs. Vernon Sturm to again head Arlington Heights Xmas Seal drive

Mrs. Vernon Sturm, 438 Banbury road, has again been named chairman of the Christmas Seal sale to raise funds in Arlington Heights for tuberculosis control.

Mrs. Sturm's record of interest in and service to the community makes her a logical choice to head the campaign in Arlington Heights," said Herbert C. De Young, president of the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county. "I am confident that she and her fellow workers will carry on a successful campaign."

Mrs. Sturm also directed the 1947 drive, in which $1,722 was raised in Arlington Heights.

A goal of half a million dollars has been set for Chicago and Cook county, an increase of some $62,000 over the record-breaking $437,682 contributed in the 1947 drive. The nationwide goal is $20,000,000.

Funds raised in the drive will be directed toward mass chest X-raying to find unknown cases of tuberculosis, teaching the facts about the disease and stimulating public action to meet the needs for its control, De Young said.

The Institute maintains a health center at the village hall and provides a generalized program for the community.

Sunday lecture series to start November 21

Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr., world-renowned traveler and lecturer, will open the 1948-49 Sunday Evening lecture series November 21 sponsored by Arlington Heights Woman's club.

His topic will be "Europe Today." Vanderbilt, who landed in the United States recently, has just started the first leg of his cross-country speaking tour.

The 1948 series of four engagements constitute the third season of bringing outstanding speakers to this area.

IN ORDER to make certain met women in Arlington Heights and Prospect Heights will have the opportunity to subscribe to the winter season of outstanding lecturers, the club this week launched a ten-day contact drive.

Contact chairmen and assistants, ready for the grand opening November 21, have been alerted to make every effort within the next 10 days to reach area women and newcomers who are not familiar with the organization's work. Any person who wishes to subscribe to the series also may do so by calling one of the ticket chairmen or committee members.

The club makes no profit whatever on the series, and has continued it this year only because, of public demand, club members voted to do so. The lectures comprise the group's educational program, and for this reason members have been willing to give their time to sell tickets.

EACH SEASON has brought strong support from high school students. This year the Woman's club again will award a gift student ticket to each student who sells 10 season tickets, either high school or adult tickets.

Mrs. Nicholas M. Lattot is lecture series chairman, and Mrs. Walter Hermesdorf and Mrs. George Hauff are chairmen of ticket sales.

They will be assisted in the contact drive by Mrs. Burton Bauer, Mrs. S. R. Catsiff, Mrs. Howard Chase, Mrs. Norman Crandall, Mrs. R. J. Ehrke, Mrs. Lewis Draper, Mrs. T. A. Drew, Mrs. M. W. Grigsby, Mrs. C. A. Hogate.

Mrs. E. A. Lyon, Mrs. R. J. Malcolmson, Mrs. William North, Mrs. Edward Paulus, Mrs. Frank Portman, Jr., Mrs. Earl Riley, Mrs. Kenneth Strickler, Mrs. P. E. Vawter, Mrs. Frank E. Wood, Mrs. James Wood, Mrs. H. A. Busse, Mrs. J. D. Crittenden, Mrs. William Hettrick, Mrs. William Kerr, Mrs. J. D. Latta, Mrs. Irving Tesch.

Prospect Heights will be contacted by Mrs. Louis Wills and Mrs. J. G. Stillar.

Five townships retain Republican leanings; give Walters 1788 votes

Although northwest Cook county asserted traditional Republican sentiment this week by giving decisive majorities to all GOP candidates, local political votes were not sufficient to do anything about getting Republican sons into office, not to mention picking the winning side.

Republican candidates, in final and near-final tabulations for county, state and national offices were completely snowed-under by a Democratic victory. The vote-pulling power of industrial areas and large cities practically nullified suburban votes, whether from downstate or northwest Cook county.

Even Henry Wallace's third party could not register enough of a protest vote to throw a wrench into Democratic voting power.

Willard C. Walters, who flew the Democratic banner for Congressional representative from the new 13th district and has been a resident of Arlington Heights for 13 years, could not make enough of a dent in Republican hearts to give northwest township to give victory to a local son.

IN EACH OF the five townships, Walters polled less than half the votes awarded to Evanstonian Ralph E. Church.

In Wheeling township, his home ground, the Democrat polled only 1877 votes compared to 4250 for Church.

Governor Green was about the most unpopular Republican in this corner of the state. In the votes cast for each of eight Republican candidates (as shown in accompanying chart) Green netted only 4,024 votes in Wheeling township, while Brooks, Dewey, Rowe, Yates, Stratton and Barrett each polled at least 400 more votes than Green's total.

Although Stevenson's vote didn't approach the bulging stage after it was passed around in this territory, Green mustered only a total of 8,895 votes, compared to 4,477 for Stevenson.

SPECULATION as to Green's downfall, not only in this area but throughout the state, centered around the fact that when Republicans state "no third term" they make no allowances, not even for their own GOP officials.

The total of straight Republican and straight Democratic votes cast increased from 6,608 to 7,063 (straight Republican) and 1,832 to 1,957 (straight Democratic). However, the increases are small enough to point out that a smaller percentage of straight Republican tickets were cast this year than in 1944, perhaps helping to account for Green's defeat.

ALTHOUGH President Truman garnered only one-fourth as many local political nods as did Governor Dewey, it was obvious his last-ditch speech in Chicago was fiery enough to soften suburban opposition.

Commentators and press reports stated a partial reason for the political upset may have been that many voters delayed their decisions until the last week. Increased voting totals were evident in four townships as 12,452 votes were cast this week, compared to 10,186 in 1944. It is estimated 54 percent of all voters in the nation visited the polls some time Tuesday, whereas the percentage in 1944 was only 48 per cent.

The jury's statement on the death of Mrs. Klinka stated his death was "suicide while temporarily insane due to dependency."

Coroner Edward Edelstein, during the hour-long inquest continuation last Thursday, was unable to uncover any other motive for the deaths from any of the ten family members present.

Klinka and his daughter were found dead at 8:55 a. m. October 9 by his wife Eleanor, returning from night shift work at South Chicago steel works, and her father Adam Szydlowski, who had met her at the train.

The bodies were still warm when Chief Skoog and police arrived. Contents of a cup and nursing bottle were sent to Dr. Carter's office for analysis.

At an inquest the following Monday, Mrs. Klinka insisted her husband had no reason to kill himself or their daughter.

Klinka and the baby accompanied Mrs. Klinka to the train the night before the murder and suicide. Mrs. Klinka testified he told her, "I'll see you tomorrow" and told the baby to "kiss your mother goodbye."

NEW FLORIST SHOP TO OPEN SATURDAY

Several years ago while Bill Sauerland and Bob Prickett were still overseas in the infantry, they decided that when they were discharged they would go into the floral business together.

For the past two and one-half years they have operated the Sauerland Flower Shop on Algonquin road. This Saturday they will have a grand opening of their new retail floral shop at 417 S. State road, Arlington Hts.

Specializing in cut flowers, corsages, potted plants, wedding bouquets, and funeral sprays, they will also carry gift items for the home such as pottery, metalware and lamps.

CHICKEN COOP FIRE
A fire in an empty chicken-coop Tuesday afternoon was extinguished by Arlington Heights firemen, who also were able to prevent the blaze from spreading to a residence fifty feet away.

The fire occurred on the George Ehrke property at 1311 N. Ridge at 2:30 p. m. Damage to the 20x20 foot chicken house, which was completely burned, was estimated at $400.00.

The first play of the school year "June Mad" will be presented on December 11, 1948. The all school play is under the direction of charming Miss Patricia Potts, the able and new teacher this year of dramatics, English, and radio workshop. She also sponsors the Paint and Wig club. Miss Potts came from Gibson City, Illinois, and graduated from Northwestern University. The assistant director is Janet Garrett; the stage manager is Joseph Poe. The production crews have been chosen and the chairmen selected. They are lighting crew, Blythe Morrow; makeup crew, Patti Ryden; costuming, Mildred Olson; properties, Roberta Skelton; stage crew, Janice Hackbarth; and publicity, Jane Rowles. The play rehearsals have been in progress during the last two weeks.

This Friday the Cardinals will end their football season at Leyden—with a victory we hope. Mr. George Bujan, ex-University of Illinois football center, is now coaching his second year at Leyden. He has done an excellent job in making this year's team one of the best in Leyden's history. Football Coach Curtis Larsen of Arlington High told this writer that his team has yet to play at its peak performance. Friday night may well be that best is good enough to win is up to the fellows, and Mr. Larsen's underdog teams can win as proven by last week's 13 to 6 triumph over Niles!

A MODEL from Estelle Compton Modeling school will be at the high school at 1:00 p. m. to deliver a talk to the girls on Thursday, Nov. 4. The talk will include discussion of such subjects as poise, grooming, manners, and a contest that will award a college scholarship to the winner. With the exception of Monday, special stenographers will be at the high school to type up the new style permanent record. These cards called karex were recently adopted by the school.

Each card includes a record of extra-curricular activities, attendance, personal qualifications at time of graduation, and a pupil history. The cards are filed in a fire-proof cabinet of a one thousand card capacity. In the future a machine will be purchased enabling photostatic copies to be made when a request is received for a student's high school record.

Next week, Nov. 8-12, will be National Education week. The radio workshop class will conduct an air program dealing with this theme.

Ramblin' Around with Ramble Inn

Everyone has been to Halloween parties, but never has anyone been to such a riotous one as the third annual Ramble Inn Party! There was so much to do, so much going on all at one time that a circus would be insignificant in comparison! At midnight the party was still booming, and the clean-up committee had to literally throw out the guests to begin the night's work!

Naturally, when such a large-scale party as this is a success, there are many persons behind the scenes who planned, worked and organized to make every little detail run smoothly. Much credit goes to all Y. C. officers, President Ken Bork, who worked on many committees including the tedious cleaning up; Carol Dempsey, vice president; Dick Spratt, treasurer, Joy Brynildsen, secretary; and Barbara Tichy and Bernard Brock, program chairmen.

The efficient adult advisory committee, of which Mrs. Kenneth Kennedy is chairman, did a great amount of work, along with popular sponsor Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell.

Adults who helped the board this year were Miss Marian Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brock, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Prellberg, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Blackburn, Mark Cleaver, Mrs. Edward Koelker, Max Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hesner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carney, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Brodura, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lull, Mrs. Donald Cox, Hugh Nichols, Mrs. Rudy Duebaugh, Mr. and Mrs. John Shanklin, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schaeffer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Simmons, Mrs. Ira Cowen, Kenneth Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fellingham, Miss Beverly Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stockdale, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ashcraft, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ryden, Mr. and Mrs. William Lathen, Mrs. Paul Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson, Mrs. Lester McAuliffe, Mrs. George Orth, Mrs. Edward Duenn, and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Kraybill.

These hard working adults ran the games and concessions, plus selling refreshments. Mrs. Beatrice Boyles was in charge of all food.

All merchants contacted were very co-operative and extremely generous with gifts which included a Waterman pen and pencil set for Verna Busse, tickets to the Chicago Bears-Washington Redskins football game from George Hallas, tickets to the Ice Follies for Betty McCall and Richard Carlson, $5.00 merchandise certificates for Ken Bork and Carol Dempsey, and two sweaters, all sorts of socks and mittens, candy, and a bow and arrow set. A table model radio was for Nan McCarty. We want to thank the Chamber of Commerce for permission to contact merchants, as well as splendid co-operation of merchants themselves.

Most hilarious event of the evening involved the famed Schmeer Case brothers, who robustly sang "Good Old Mountain Dew" accompanied by squirt guns, shot guns and hill-billy garb. Their contribution to the super floor show was unusual and displayed great vocal skill. The five-boy quartette sang "Show Me the Way to Go Home" and "I've Been Working on the Railroad." Their mellow songs were enthusiastically received. Sally Young did a little girl version of the song "They All Pick on Me." The girls' sextet rendered "Dream," which was perfectly harmonized. Bob Ragland gave forth with a couple of fine piano solos. Carl Skoog did a fine job as M. C. Connie Johnson sang and played a bass viol. After the five floor show, the party began all over again!

Hot-dog racing was the most popular activity of the night, and was constantly crowded with spectators and enthusiastic racers. Turtle-racing was lots of fun, too, although not quite as fast moving. Also popular was the merchandise wheel, and the traditional Spook House was very effective this year, as most brave souls emerged all wet. The fortune teller awed their subjects with their amazingly accurate revelations.

Days before the party, many students gave up much time towards decorating, setting up the numerous stands and making the Spook House foolproof and gruesome. Some of the most diligent workers were Warren Lattof, Bob Hinds, Mary Lou Sander, Peg Koelker, Butch Tichey, and Frank Pytlík. Betty McCall and Ken Bork deserve special mention for their work on all phases of the party.

The clean-up committee, which had a gigantic task and worked until 1:30 included Carol Bellmore, Carol Dempsey, Joan Dempsey, Brad Godfrey, John Crockett, Pat Gieseke, Laverne Lancilotti, Sylvia Brown, Betty McCall, Ronnie Grace, Chuck Johnson, and Ken Bork. Theirs was the unpleasant task of cleaning thoroughly the entire Field House after 500 students had happily thrown everything from high into the air!

We also enjoyed the presence of some interested high school teachers and office workers. Miss Edith Lindsey, LeRoy Knoepfel, principal of A. H. T. H. S., Wallace Grace, Miss Louise Youngren, Mrs. Florence Elfeld, Miss Donna Volz, Mr. and Mrs. Schmoeyer and Miss Elaine Kehe all gave up their evening to come down and see one of our wonderful parties. (I think they had just as much fun as the Ramble Inn members — hope so, anyway!)

'Something new in Scouting'

Eighteen scout leaders of NWS Council met at North School, Arlington Heights Oct. 27 to try out "Something new in Scouting". New plans, new ideas have been added to inspire the leaders in Scouting to carry out a bigger and better Cubbing and Scouting program for the boys, making it more interesting and effective in satisfying the youth of today who become citizens of tomorrow.

Cub leaders met in one room under the leadership of Wally DeBuhr and Marty Freeman who demonstrated many new games and new projects for the Cubs to engage in.

Simultaneously Stan Huntington and Geo. Sheppard discussed many new ideas and plans with the Scout troop leaders in another room.

James Wax together with the administrative leaders conducted their meeting in another room where such matters as new programs, new personnel, and finances were discussed. Jim pointed out that money raised in Scout finance drives does not go to any individual troop but is allocated to the Council for necessary operational expense and the effective carrying on of the Scouting and Cubbing program throughout the entire Council. Otto Wulbecker of the Lions Club announced that the Lions club is giving a play at Arlington Heights in which the entire proceeds will be divided 3 ways: one third to the Lions club, one third to the girl scouts and one third to the boy scouts.

Ben Cochran opened the meeting promptly at eight with a Scout flag ceremonial. Stan Huntington brought the meeting to a close promptly at ten o'clock.

Among those present and enjoying the delicious refreshments are:

Cubbers group: Wally DeBuhr, Marty Freeman, John Spellman, C. Stadlerman, Al Schmidt, Bob Charles.

Scouters group: Stan Huntington, Geo. Sheppard, Art Raven, Geo. Westernman, Lief Maseng, Ed Chidley, Bill Watson.

Administrative group: Jim Wax, Dick Morrow, Art Blaschke, Ben Cochran, Arnold Hatch.

Don't cry over cry babies says cry baby expert

"Don't cry over cry babies," said Dr. Elfride Horst at the meeting of the newly organized Pre-school Study Group at Arlington Heights South school last week Wednesday.

"In fact, it's one of their most normal functions," continued the self-styled "cry baby specialist."

"Though we recognize hunger, pain, emotional upsets, and frustrations as legitimate causes, we simply do not know why babies cry after these discomforts have been taken care of."

The PTA Pre-school Study Group will meet on the first Thursday of the month at 8:00 p.m. throughout the winter. There will be panel discussions followed by a question and answer period.

Four events highlight Lutheran Education week

Parents night, a sound movie and Sunday sermons will be a part of National Lutheran Education week as observed by St. Peter congregation, Arlington Heights, November 7 to 14.

Rev. Ernest Runge, of Immanuel Lutheran church, Palatine, will deliver a sermon Sunday, November 7, at 9:15 a. m. on Christian education. Rev. Stephen will preach the regular 10:45 a. m. service.

Wednesday evening, November 10, at 8 p. m. a full-length sound picture, "Messenger of Peace," will be shown at South school auditorium. The movie was produced under auspices of Lutheran Laymen's league in Hollywood at a cost of $110,000. "Messenger of Peace" is not only the biography of a clergyman, but also has elements of humor and pathos, romance and conflict. No admission will be charged, but a free-will offering will be gathered.

Friday, November 12, the Mother's club and PTA of St. Peter Lutheran school will hold open house after a regular business meeting at 8 p. m. The open house will be held in the school and all parents will have an opportunity to discuss problems with teachers.

Lutheran Education week will come to a close Sunday, November 14, when Pastor Stephen will deliver a sermon in both morning services on the Christian home. The public is cordially invited to all events.

Old Folks Home

About 83 ladies of the women's society of Hope Lutheran church, Chicago, where the Rev. John Liemer is pastor, visited Arlington Heights Old Folks Home October 28. They came by special buses and enjoyed a picnic lunch on the Home's grounds.

A number of the ladies play in a kitchen band, and they entertained the residents in the dining room by playing popular songs and old time favorites on instruments made of washboards, tubs, graters, spoons and other kitchen utensils. The group made a special donation to the home to provide a treat for the residents.

Friday over a hundred children of Niles Township Lutheran school visited the home. They entertained the residents with songs and toured the Home, learning about services it extends to aged people.

Sunday a group from St. John's church, Libertyville, entertained the residents. A girls group sang a number of hymns and also a group of old time favorites.

Bill Gutzmer, accordionist, delighted the residents by playing popular songs, polkas, marches, and other old time favorites. Robert and Arthur Horst, aged 8 and 10, played piano selections.

Cold Storage Potatoes

When Irish potatoes are stored at low temperatures sugar will develop in them. Commercial cold storage potatoes are held at about 40 degrees F. Very little sugar develops at that temperature, but at 30 to 36 F. potatoes will soon become unfit to eat. Common potato storage on most farms is seldom low enough to give trouble from sugar formation.

Faith Xmas bazaar planned for Nov. 17

A Christmas bazaar, sponsored by the ladies of Faith Lutheran church, will be given at the Arlington Heights field house November 17. This is the second annual bazaar given by the Faith Ladies, who had a colorful display last year.

Lunch will be served beginning at 1 p. m. and continuing throughout the afternoon. Barbecue, dessert and coffee will head the menu.

Sale of articles will begin at 2 p. m. Two beautiful quilts, an afghan, and a crocheted tablecloth, with matching buffet set, have been made for this sale.

ANTIQUES of real value, a spinning wheel and yarn winder, both very old, a spice cabinet, plates of milk and amber glass, kerosene lamps, and many other items will be sold far below dealers prices.

Aprons, fancy goods, including pillowslips, towels and doilies, will also be featured. The baby booth will have "everything for baby," including educational and entertaining toys.

Lutheran Mission Crusaders annual celebration Sunday

A large crowd of Lutherans from churches in Chicago and suburbs are expected to participate in the fifth annual festival of the Lutheran Mission Crusaders, which will be held Sunday, November 7, at 2:45 p.m. in the Arlington Heights high school gymnasium.

The speaker for the divine service will be Rev. P. Huxhold of Harvard, Ill. The Rev. J. E. A. Mueller of Mt. Prospect, who is the Spiritual Adviser of the Crusaders, will open the service with the call to worship. Rev. H. A. Mueller of Dunette will give the scripture lesson.

'What's-a-Poppin?' highly praised

The variety show, "What's-a-Poppin'?", sponsored by Arlington Heights Parent-Teacher association last Thursday and Friday, was a huge success. Favorable comments were heard everywhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moore said, "We thoroughly enjoyed ourselves. The variety in the acts kept us interested until the final curtain."

"We all thought it was an excellent show," said Mrs. John Shanklin and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davidson. "We attended the Thursday night performance and if a previous engagement hadn't prevented us, we would have gone on the second night too."

Mrs. Dewey Beck commented: "It was good, just as good as any vaudeville show I have ever seen in Chicago."

"I really had an evening of fun," said Mrs. Don B. Stockdale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Hines stated, "We hadn't laughed so hard or so long in years as we did at 'What's-a-Poppin'?"

"It was wonderful," said Mrs. George Orth. "I think an occasional show of this type would always go over big in Arlington Heights."

In commenting on the performance Mrs. E. J. Emery, president of PTA said: "We deeply appreciate the time and effort contributed by the entire cast and feel that it stimulated a friendlier relationship in our community which was the real purpose of the show."

These are just a few of the many, many praises given the show. Mrs. Daisy Bosch directed the acts in which adults and children took part, and was assisted by Mrs. W. P. Scholz and Richard Michalski. Others helping promote the show included: Mrs. Vernon Sturm, business manager; Mrs. Kay Campbell, art director; Mrs. James Speers, publicity chairman; Mrs. Chas. Stadell and Mrs. Chester Moore, ticket chairmen; and Mrs. Erle Ellis, refreshment chairman.

Christmas Fair set for November 9

In the final week of preparation for its Christmas Fair, the Women's Association of the Presbyterian church of Arlington Heights is completing plans for a turkey dinner to highlight the evening. The fair, to be held Nov. 9, will open at nine in the morning and continue throughout the day and into late evening.

Mrs. H. G. Peter, chairman of the dinner, announces a turkey dinner "with all the trimmings" at $1.65 for adults and $1.75 for children. Serving will begin at 5:30 p. m. and continue through 7:30.

A barbecue luncheon will also be served, starting at 11 a. m. for noontime shoppers. The luncheon will include a barbecue sandwich, coffee and dessert for $1.50.

To be doubly sure no one at the fair will go hungry, the association members have made plans to have Hamburger Dan on hand during the evening hours. A group of teen-agers will assist him in serving.

to have third lecture

An interested group of 110 members of Concordia college, River Forest, give his second lecture on the subject, "Problem Parents—Are You One?", at the Palatine Immanuel Lutheran church last week, Wednesday.

A movie to illustrate his topic, "As the Twig is Bent, the Tree's Inclined," was shown. A general discussion took place following the lecture, in which questions asked by the audience were satisfactorily answered by Mr. Maurer.

The subject for his next lecture, to be given November 10, will be "Your Family Morale—How Is It?" The lecture will be held at the church and will begin at 8 p. m. An invitation to attend is extended to the public and no admission will be charged, though a free will offering will be taken.

ARLINGTON AT LEYDEN FOR NORTHEAST TITLE GAME FRIDAY

The high school football game this season we would like most to see will be played at Franklin Park Friday night when Arlington Heights tries their luck against the most potent football team ever to represent Leyden high school. Leyden has been down in football for many years but this season it is different. The Eagles have beaten Glenbard, Downers Grove, Riverdale, and Hinsdale of the West Suburban League, Bensenville of the Northwest, and have lost only to Elgin, 12-6. Last week Leyden crushed a good Niles team 41-0. What they will do to Arlington's Cards who beat Niles 12-0 and last week trounced Libertyville 33-0 is a big question.

Leyden has a devastating passing attack. If Arlington can stop it they will stay with the Eagles. We doubt if they will but will be interested in watching Robinson and company try. Leyden should pack their sparsious stands for this game. The winner takes the Northeast championship even if it only a three team title.

Remaining Northeast teams out of class of five who seceded

Any way you look at it the five teams which left the Northeast are not in the class with the three they left behind. Arlington proved that by whipping Crystal Lake, North Suburban leader, by 19-6 and then tonying with Libertyville, 33-0. This week Niles will easily whip Woodstock. All three wish they had been given a chance to even old scores with Lake Forest, but the break up of the conference came too soon.

Bronchos are best in Northwest loop in last 10 years

They are saying that Barrington has the best football team in the 10 years of the Northwest Conference since it was reorganized. With that statement we heartily agree. The Bronchos have size, speed, ability, and a winning spirit. They love to play football and they play it in a way to make any coach swell up with pride. Coach Paul Fry is having an enjoyable season, you can bet on that. Barrington seems to be getting a little better each week. They took it easy letting 50 points at Antioch. What will they do to Grant Saturday? The Bronchos can name their own score, the difference in the two teams will be so great.

Antioch's 1942 team was best until this year

We have always felt, up to this year, that the Antioch team coached by Carl Wolfenbarger in 1942 was the best the league had produced, but this year's Barrington squad has that Antioch team outclassed. Third best we have seen in the Northwest would be last year's Bensenville and Grant teams which tied for the championship.

Zion can tie Crystal Lake for North Suburban

Warren lived up to pre-season predictions at last as they beat Crystal Lake Friday 12-6 and moved Zion into a first place tie with the Tigers. A tie with Lake Forest and a one point defeat at Woodstock keeps Warren just a half game behind. This week Warren plays Zion in the final game of the season. If Zion wins they get a share of the championship. If Warren wins they move into second place and Zion drops to third. Before the season opened we rated the league as Crystal Lake, Warren, and Zion for the first three spots. A Warren victory this week would bring that finish.

Supposed casualty scores four touchdowns

There has been a story around Palatine for some weeks, without foundation, that the Lemont lad who was hurt in the Palatine game had died of injuries. He had struck his head on a sideline post and had to be taken from

Palatine frosh sophs claim conference lead

Palatine township high school claims the frosh-soph football championship of the Northwest conference following their 19-0 victory over Grant last week end. Playing each league opponent on the same week end as the varsity game Palatine emerged with a record of four victories and one tie. Barrington, the only other school to play a full league schedule of frosh-soph games, had three wins and two ties. Palatine and Barrington tied Bensenville. Barrington beat Palatine 9-7 in an extra game played before the start of the conference season.

The young Pirates, with a large number of freshmen on their squad, beat Northbrook 33-19, Bensenville 13-7, Antioch 32-0, and Grant 19-0 in addition to the 6-6 tie with Barrington's Ponies.

PALATINE'S team featured good blocking and deadly tackling. Krause, freshman fullback, and Day, freshman quarterback, carried most of the burden of offense for the team. Other backfield men seeing the most action were Herbertz, soph.; Nichol, soph.; Zoellick, frosh.; Dejka, frosh.; Probst, soph.

Linemen who saw most service were Bopp, Lorden, Netzeband, Gaere, Heiden, sophomores; and Gunder, Hillsheim, Grever, and Ellis, freshmen.

Coach Claude Bailey developed a team well grounded in fundamentals and having a real spirit and desire to play hard football. He kept a large squad of boys out all season and used nearly all the squad in every game. Other boys who played in most of the games but not as regulars were Metzler, T. Smith, Davidson, Nessett, Kincaid, Ambros, Lemke, Mangels, Dreyer, Ward, Frette, Schwingel and Bitz.

Paul Stroud guest speaker at NW Towns sports meet

The next meeting of the Northwest Towns Sportsman's club will be held November 9, at 8 p.m., at the Arlington Hts. Legion hall.

Special event of the evening will be Paul Stroud's demonstration of the use of the duck call and methods of tuning call. Mr. Stroud is the 1947 Illinois State champion duck caller and has entered the National duck calling contest to be held soon.

All men interested in hunting, fishing, skeet shooting and conservation are invited to attend. The club has a skeet field in mind that they are now trying to close a deal on.

Chicago Cards host to Detroit

Chicago Cardinals championship football squad takes on an easy mark this Sunday at Comiskey Park when they play host to the Detroit Lions. Detroit is out of the running to all intents and purposes in the western division, but Bob McMillin's boys promise to make a good showing for south side fans.

Then there is always the chance for an upset. Los Angeles almost pulled that stunt last Sunday. The Cards were resting on their laurels with a 27-3 victory tucked under their belts, until the Rams suddenly brought up the end of the game to 22. Last two minutes could easily have seen a west coast victory except for an intercepted pass.

AT ANY RATE, local fans feel they deserve a slight rest after Sunday's hectic game. And they expect an easy contest Sunday to provide that relaxation.

Card fans are already pointing for that December 12 game against the Bears with the division title at stake. They insist Angsman, Mallow, Harder, and company, can at least gain a split for the year against their cross town rivals.

First there were two, now there are three Arlington men on Beloit squad

BILL DALE BOB

Calculated to give the willies to any opponents are three Beloit college football players, twin guards Bob and Bill Williams and their younger brother, Dale, a fullback, all of Arlington Heights.

The old cliché—"small but tough"—applies in full force here. Bob and Bill have always been first-stringers and yet the smallest boys on any team they've played on and Dale, only slightly bigger, than the twins at 5'8" and 170 pounds, holds down the regular line-backing chores on the Beloit team.

Because of this the Williams boys are constantly a source of amazement at Beloit. The twins have a sort of native agility that permits them to play most of the game in an opponent's backfield. A common statement from anyone who has watched them play for very long is, "Twenty or thirty more pounds and there'd be a pair of twin All-Americans in this country."

Dale's specialty is line-backing. By actual statistical record he had a finger in nearly half of Beloit's tackles in the Denison game on Oct. 9.

TWINS BOB and Bill got their innate love of the game that makes them seem like born players during high school ball at Arlington Heights. Dale says that the best thing he gained from high school competition was an ability to handle just about every offensive system. He played under five different coaches at Arlington Heights. All three agree that they've gained a lot from their father, Paul Williams, who was a football star at Rockford high school. Every fall until recently he would come out in the yard in his whiteswatter with the faded red football letter and teach his boys some tricks. Then his sons began to grow up and after suffering two broken ankles, Father Williams decided to retire.

Dale is one of the few people in the world who can infallibly tell his twin brothers apart. He says it doesn't help to try to detect minute physical differences. His method is by noting personality variations.

Beloit coach, Oliver Olson, was in a fog until recently in trying to tell the twins apart. Then the two boys made it easy by coming up with different injuries. Bob with a bad charley horse and Bill with a gash over his right eye.

THE TWINS are both majoring in geology, and Dale, who has had near-perfect grades since enrolling at Beloit, plans to major in chemistry. The Williams boys have one sister, Dorothy, who, to be different, went to school at Carroll college.

A wartime sojourn of two years in the Navy for Bob and Bill has enabled the three brothers to play together on the same team for the first time. The twins are 21 years old and Dale is 19, but the younger brother caught up during world war II.

The twins graduate in 1950 and Dale graduates a year later. Thus all will be back to play next year which guarantees a continuance of what Coach Olson has termed the "ideal football spirit" at Beloit.

Leyden whips Niles easily

After nine consecutive victories over Leyden, the string was broken as the Niles varsity lost to the Leyden Eagles 41-0 Friday, October 29, on the Leyden field.

With the game just three minutes old, Leyden carried over left guard for the first touchdown. The Eagles scored twice in the second quarter, the latter of which as set up by a 70-yard punt return by Jim Sperra, Leyden's ace halfback. The final tallies were added in the fourth quarter on a one-foot plunge over center and a 70-yard pass.

THE TROJANS threatened once in the fourth quarter with second down and the ball on the one-yard line. The Trojans failed to gain on three plays, however, and Leyden took possession of the ball.

Burton Gerhardt, Tom Black, and Jack Larson all played good defensive ball for the Trojans' lost cause.

Friday, November 5, is homecoming celebration at Niles as the sophomores and varsity meet Woodstock, an old Northeast Conference foe, at 6:15 and 8:15 p.m. respectively.

Bronchos roll over Antioch

Barrington's classy Bronchos stamped at Antioch last Friday night and left the Sequoits trampled in the dust, 50-0 for their fourth straight conference shutout victory. Subs performed equally well with regulars with little let up in the tempo of the game as reserves put over three touchdowns in the final quarter. The Bronchos had a total gain from scrimmage of 541 yards to Antioch's 64 and this does not include run back of punts and intercepted passes.

The first score was set up by Hick recovering a fumble on the Antioch 23 yard line. Four plays brought the score with John Hansen carrying the ball. The second was tallied on a 43 yard pass play from Hansen to Hick. The third score was made by George Hansen, reserve fullback, following a steady march of 64 yards in 11 plays.

At the start of the third quarter Barrington fumbled the kickoff and Antioch recovered on the Broncho 23. With fourth down and 13 yards to go Antioch tossed a flat pass which Hick intercepted on the 30 and legged it 70 yards for a touchdown. Still another score came in the third period when Shuett, sub back, caught a punt on his own 12 yard stripe and reversed his field for an 88 yard touchdown sprint.

In the final period Kranz plunged over on a play set up by a 25 yard pass by G. Hansen to Hick. The 7th score came when Tukey intercepted a pass and ran to the Antioch 28 yard line and then threw a pass to Roake on the next play for a touchdown. The eighth touchdown was on a pass from Tukey to Shuett from the 20 yard line.

Chicago Stags open season against Baltimore Saturday night

The Chicago Stags, braced by four pre-season exhibition games, are now concerned with November 6 and the opening of their 1948 home schedule. The Baltimore Bullets, who last year copped the B. A. A. championship offer the Stags their first test in a doubleheader program that also features the famous Harlem Globe-trotters against the Toledo Collegians.

The game will introduce a number of well known collegiate cagers to Chicago cage fans. The Stags boast Ed Mikkan and Ed "Whitey" Kachan former DePaul University stars, Odie "Sleepy" Spears from Western Kentucky, Kenny Rollins, captain of last year's sensational University of Kentucky team and Bill Roberts 6-9 Wyoming University center. Baltimore has Walter Budko from Columbia and Danny Krause of George Washington University to bolster last year's great squad.

The Trotter-Toledo game will tip-off at 8:00.

Grimmer misses state by one

Last Saturday seven Arlington cross country runners made the trip to Proviso high school with Coach Conrad for the district meet, but only one managed to gain recognition.

Leonard Grimmer ran an excellent race for the Cards over a tough course and placed eleventh out of a field of over 60 runners. This was just one place short of going downstate as the first 10 runners plus the winning team to make the trip.

At Ripon

Although he is busy as student director of the Frank J. Harwood Memorial Union on the Ripon college campus and carries a full load of studies, Bill Godknecht of Palatine, finds time to play varsity football with the Ripon college Redmen. Godknecht is a reserve tackle, and the Redmen currently are leading the Midwest Conference with four straight conference victories and no defeats. The Redmen have one conference game left on their schedule, Grinnell at Grinnell, Iowa, November 13. In addition one non-conference game remains, against Carroll college of Waukesha on November 6 at Ripon.

On the sidelines

For the most part of this week, Coach Curtis Larsen has been drilling the Arlington squad on defense. From a report of the Niles-Leyden game the Eagles did everything quite well as you can see from their 41-0 victory over Niles. Everyone got through the Libertyville game in good shape and there has been very little contact work this week.

Coach Larsen is hoping that the Cards have reached the peak of perfection by Friday night, and this could be true because the Heights squad has been going great guns lately and many of the linemen, who before had very little experience, are rounding into nice shape. The Arlington squad knows well that they must play to the best of their ability if they want to upset this Leyden team.

THIS GAME could be compared to last year's fracas with Niles, when the Trojans had previously run over all opposition by large scores but were upset by a great Arlington team, 13-6. The Cards respect the fine job Coach George Bujan has done in rounding the Eagles into the fine ball club that they are, and both coaches are looking forward to a hard fought, sportsmanlike game with the best team, coming out the victor.

One of the highlights of last week's game with Libertyville, according to the three officials, was the outstanding performance of Arlington's star guard, Jimmy Stavros, on both offense and defense. Another highlight was the playing of little Eddie Kostka, junior halfback, who made Bob Neumann's 73 yard touchdown run possible with a beautiful block, and who made several beautiful tackles while in the game.

Sixteen Seniors will bow out in tomorrow night's game with Leyden, and these boys want you fans to see them make their exit, so don't miss that game starting at 8:15. Arlington's Frosh-Soph team also ends its season Friday with a game against the Eagles. This game starts at 6:15.

The Cardinals have a great home record this year. They did not lose a single game on the home field and only one touchdown was scored against them, the one by Crystal Lake in the last two minutes of the game on an intercepted pass is the flat by Cowan.

Bisons host to Antioch in homecoming

In what could easily be billed the most important game of the year for both squads, Arlington travels to Leyden Friday night of this week with the mythical Northeast conference championship at stake.

The league folded last year when five schools decided to form their own group supposedly gain a smaller variance in student enrollments. Niles, Arlington and Leyden, all schools in fast growing communities, were left holding the bag, and have been scheduling free lance.

THIS YEAR, however, with the three teams decidedly superior to any of the five secessionists, final games for the Cards, Trojans and Eagles gain more importance.

With Niles falling to both Arlington and Leyden, the Eagles, with reputedly the best all-around backfield in the state, stand out as the best team in the history of the school. That Heights contest on the Franklin Park field at 7:30 under lights Friday looms as the battle for championship honors in the small conference.

THE LEYDEN team has been built around speed in its backfield, and Arlington's only chance would come from a wet field. Even then, the "experts" admit, that turf would have to be practically swimming to stop the Eagles.

Bensenville plays host to Antioch in the final game for both teams with homecoming festivities at the DuPage county school sure to bring victory to Coach Tom Meneguini's boys. Halftime festivities for the Bisons will include crowning of the queen, maneuvers of the band, etc.

Arlington Frosh Sophs beat St. Mary's

Arlington's big Frosh-Soph team made up for a loss to Niles by rolling over a fighting St. Mary's team from Des Plaines by a 20-0 score.

Bob Fasick was the first Cardinal to hit the scoring column when he took off and raced 35 yards around end into the end zone for a touchdown. Ron Thill added the extra point on a line plunge.

In the second quarter Coach William Creamer's charges increased their lead when Bill Cutler plowed over from the 3 yard line for the second touchdown. Harry Griffith kicked the extra point to give the Cards a 10-0 lead.

The Cards next touchdown was set up by Eric Nelson who raced 40 yards around left end before being brought down on the 1 yard line. Jim Schwartz, Arlington's 225 pound sophomore tackle, then went through on a tackle around play for the score. The extra point kick was blocked but the locals held a 20-0 lead with subs finishing most of the game out.

Incidentally, Griffith has proven himself quite a kicker as he has booted 8 out of 10 extra points, with the two he missed being blocked.

Arlington's Frosh-Soph team ends its season Friday with a preliminary tilt with Leyden at 6:15.

Grant rallies in last quarter to defeat Palatine in final Palatine closed the Northwest Conference football season on Hallowe'en night at Grant on the short end of a 13-7 score. The Pirates scored in the first quarter and had the upper hand until the final period when Grant came to life and opened up a passing attack which clicked for two touchdowns. Palatine came back and had driven to the Grant five yard line when the game ended. Palatine had a season record of one victory, one tie, and six defeats with a 1-4 record in the conference.

On the first play after the kickoff Grant fumbled and Palatine recovered on the 35 yard line. Kagay carried the ball in six out of seven plays. The Pirates had scored. Kagay plunged through Grant's left guard for the extra point. Those seven points loomed larger and larger to Palatine players and fans as the game went through the second and third quarters without Grant scoring. The Bulldogs did get to the Palatine 24 yard line on one occasion in the second quarter and late in the first quarter fired a backfield man for a 67 yard run which would have been a score except that one of their men was off side.

Sheplar sparks comeback in final quarter
With the start of the final period Grant opened up and scored in eight plays from their own 20 yard line. Highlighting the 80 yard drive were passes of 13 and 17 yards, a 17 yard end run by Sheplar and a 15 yard gain on pass interference. Sheplar scored the touchdown from the three yard line and plunged over for the tying extra point.

Grant kicked off to Palatine and Loeber fumbled the kickoff and was lucky to fall on it on Palatine's one yard line. From this point Palatine moved the ball to the 10 yard line in three plays and punted 25 yards to the 35 yard line. Grant, with their morale lifted by the first touchdown scored from the 35 in two plays. A five yard penalty set them back to the 41 where Wendland looped a long pass to Francis for a 31 yard gain to the Pirate 10. Sheplar hit the center of the Palatine line and ran the remaining 10 yards into the end zone without being tackled. The try for extra point failed on a bad pass from center.

Palatine took the kickoff, which followed, on their own 38 and came down the field with four first downs in a row. The final play of the game was a 30 yard pass from Loeber to Trenchard who was downed on the Grant five yard line.

Palatine had the better running game and Grant had a better game on passing. Palatine made 14 first downs to Grant's 9 but Grant gained five more yards than the Pirates from scrimmage. Palatine's passing was weak and their punting was below average. Kagay stood out as a ball carrier. His 92 net yards was more than the Grant team made rushing. Dick Ross made 40 yards in seven attempts for the best average. Sheplar, a ball carrier, and Mover at tackle, were Grant standouts. Sheplar, who had been out with a shoulder injury, entered the game in the last period to bring a Grant victory.

10:00 each evening. Gym classes have the call until 2:20 and then on it is basketball. Palatine high has three squads and each has regular practice periods with a coach of their own and a full schedule of games. Varsity, frosh-soph, and freshman squads each number about 20 or more boys. One night a week of games in an intramural league of six teams will give about 50 to 60 more boys a chance to play.

The grade school, waiting for their own gym to be equipped, has three practice sessions weekly at the high school. The Walter League boys and girls of the Lutheran church, made up of high school age people, has one session. All this fills the schedule until about 10:00 p. m. every week night.

Earl Stutzman has the varsity, Claude Bailey the frosh-soph, and Dick Welty the intramural teams. Palatine has more boys than girls in their student body and there is a real interest in basketball. Every boy is going to get a chance to play on a level suited to his ability and experience. We are proud of this athletic program for the winter months and feel that Palatine is lucky to have enough men to capably handle it.

You can't beat the Globe Trotters as a cage attraction

No more fitting start to basketball competition for the season in Palatine could be planned than the game the Lions are sponsoring November 15, featuring the Harlem Globe Trotters. This famous group, managed and coached by "Abe" Saperstein, are well known from coast to coast as the wizards of basketball. They do things with a basketball that no one else even attempts. If you are coming to see a close game you will be disappointed. Palatine has no real competition for this group which beat the national pro champs last season. If you like to see clever basketball action and a real show, be one of the 600 who will see this opening cage event in Palatine.

Palatine won four straight Northwest cage championships from 1939-43 with a loss of but two games, both by one point, in 42 played in the league. Players from those teams plus some all-conference boys from more recent teams will make up a 15 man squad to oppose the Globe Trotters. Receipts, after the colored team takes their 50% cut, will go to Palatine Youth Center, Inc. Buy tickets from Lions club members. See a real show and help a worthy cause.

Cards gain clean slate on home field; win 33-0

by MARVIN PRELLBERG

A powerhouse Arlington football squad racked up five touchdowns, and three extra points to rout a fighting Libertyville team by a 33-0 count in a game held on the Heights' field last Friday evening before a fair-sized crowd.

The Cards proved that the Wildcats were no match for them, as Coach Curtis Larsen's charges ran wild in the ground gaining department. Arlington's line simply tore Libertyville's forward wall to shreds as it pushed back the Cats time after time. Equally effective was the Card's passing defensive which let only 5 of 19 passes be completed, while intercepting 4. Bill Robinson was outstanding on pass defense as he intercepted 3 of the 4 passes. Jim Stavros, aided by Bill Wiest and Vic Bittner, provided the bulk of the local's strong line, while Chuck Fischer and Augie Krause were the main offensive cogs.

AFTER EXCHANGING punts for most of the first quarter, Arlington finally got its first scoring chance following a bad punt by Jack Gossell, which was downed on Libertyville's 44 yard line, netting 6 yards. Roger Breda and Fischer moved in two plays up to the 31 yard line for a first and ten, and in two more plays Fischer and Krause banged up to the 13 for another first and ten. On the next play Bob Ragland, who had just come in, raced wide around left end into the end zone for his first TD of the year and Arlington's first of the night. Ken Bork added the extra point kick and the Cards led when the first period ended, 7-0.

Arlington scored once more in the next frame, thanks to a fine punt by Robinson. On last down, Robinson punted from the Wildcats' 42 yard line, the ball bounced crazily around deep in the Cats territory and stopped on the 1 foot line. Libertyville's Gossell had no other choice but to return the kick. The punt was taken by Robinson who moved it 8 yards up to the 32. An offside penalty on Libertyville and a run by Breda carried up to the 20 for a first down. Robinson and Fischer snatched through for 12 more yards up to the 8, and on first down Robinson went through on a spinner play for the score. The extra point kick was low, but Arlington led at the end of the half, 13-0.

FOLLOWING a scoreless third quarter, the Cards really went to work in the last frame and pounded over 3 more touchdowns. The first was carried over by Krause, climaxing a 40-yard march. Two passes, one from Robinson to Ragland and another from Robinson to Krause, plus a run by Robinson brought the ball up to the 12 yard stripe from where Krause swept right end for a score. Bork added the point after touchdown and the score was 20-0 in favor of Arlington.

Emmey McDougall crashed through and set up the second touchdown when he blocked a punt which was recovered by Arlington on the 18. After Ragland had carried up to the 6, Gordon Busse ripped through into the end zone only to have it called back because of a pushing penalty. On third down, a pass intended for Dick Brown was ruled complete on an interference penalty up to the 5. Busse smacked up to the 2, and Paul Roche, sophomore fullback, went over for the score and a 26-0 lead.

The final tally was the most exciting one of the game. On the last play of the game, with Libertyville passing desperately deep in Arlington territory, Gossell faded back and heaved a pass. Bob Neumann, who was in as line backer, snagged the ball and behind beautiful interference raced 73 yards down the western sidelines for a dramatic touchdown. Bork kicked the placement and with the game ended, Arlington had scored its fourth straight victory by a 33-0 final.

TOMORROW NIGHT 16 seniors end their grid career at AHTHS in a game against Leyden. To win this contest the Cardinals will really have to be in the pink of condition, for Leyden has mauling practically everybody in its way, including Niles by a 41-0 score. The tilt is scheduled for 8:15 on the Eagles' field. A Frosh-Soph game will precede the varsity affair bringing together the Arlington and Leyden underclass eleventh in what should be a great game. This starts at 6:15.

Heavy sleepers

"A large silo 50 feet high slid down with such ease after it had blown inside with internal combustion somewhere between nine and eleven Monday evening that Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Regole on whose farm the accident happened were only slightly aroused by the noise from the slide and went back to sleep at their Maple Leaf Farm, two miles east of Saint Charles.

In falling it pushed the dairy barn off the foundation and crashed it to the ground, as well as a windmill, tool house and hammer mill. The barn contained 60 to 80 bales of hay which were stacked at one end of the barn and were pushed out by the impact.

Several versions of the noise were given by the Regoles. They thought it might have been their daughters, Viola and Mary Anne coming home from a birthday party; it might have been their son falling out of bed; it might have been a highway accident on Route No. 64. Not hearing anything further, they all went back to sleep and found, the wreckage the next morning.

How to save half the winter fuel bill told by university

by ERNEST ANDREAS

Rising coal and fuel oil prices give added point information released by the Small Homes Council at the University of Illinois telling about home insulation, which can save as much as one-half the winter fuel bill — one shovel of coal from every two.

Fifty per cent is the saving estimate for a typical two-story frame house with wood or shingle siding to which tight storm windows and doors, four inches of insulation between ceiling joist and three and five-eighths inches between wall studs is applied.

The facts about insulation and fuel saving, many resulting from years of careful research at the University, are presented in a free eight page non-technical circular. The high spot in it is a table showing reductions in a fuel bill possible in eight typical types of construction for one-story and two-story homes.

The estate of Carol Cully, of Des Plaines, who died intestate Sept. 6, has been opened in Chicago Probate court. Its amount has not been stated. Heirs are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Cully, and two small brothers. Her father was named administrator of the estate. All live in Des Plaines.

ELIZABETH ZUASCHLAG

Mrs. Elizabeth Zuaschlag, 818 North Highland avenue, Arlington Heights, who died August 13, left an estate estimated at $10,000, it was disclosed in a petition to admit the will filed Friday in probate court.

Named as heirs were a daughter, Kathryn Anderson, 3841 Jansen avenue, and a granddaughter, Dolores Anderson, 17, also of 3841 Jansen avenue.

MINNIE LANGENDORF

The will of Mrs. Minnie Langendorf, of Chicago, who died Oct. 1, leaving an estimated $10,000 estate, has been admitted to probate. She left 90% of her estate to her son, Edwin J. Langendorf, of Barrington, and the other 10% to a grandson in Chicago. Her son was named executor of her will.

'Lady from the Sea' next serial story in this newspaper

"The Lady from the Sea" is the title of the most fascinating and interesting serial which will start in next week's issue.

The story is from the pen of Cyrus Townsend Brady, author of a number of works of fiction that have received attention in the best literary circles.

Ellen Smith, heroine of the story, is the daughter of a confederate officer who owns a privateer, and the scene is during the Civil war. Thomas Beekman Smith is a naval officer of the Government and captures the privateer with Ellen aboard.

Some very entertaining and interesting chapters are devoted to life on the ocean and love making later. Ellen appears to have betrayed Smith to the confederates, and he barely escapes death as a spy. Later still, her father, who has been a captive, disowns his daughter when she states she loves Smith. Smith is finally set at liberty and the discarded Ellen becomes his happy wife.

Solemnize Grupe-Bonhorst wedding vows

Many relatives and friends gathered in St. Paul Evangelical church in Bloomingdale Sunday at 7 p. m. to witness the marriage of Miss Minnie Grupe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grupe, of Bloomingdale, to Charles Bonhorst, of Elk Grove.

The bride was attired in white silk, and wore the customary veil of tulle held with bridal roses. She carried a bouquet of roses and ferns.

Rev. J. J. Mayer read the ceremony. The Grupe home, where the reception was held immediately afterward, was decorated in lavender and white, as was the church. Tables were decorated with carnations and ferns. After the supper, guests all went to the hall, where the evening was spent in dancing.

As the guests departed, all wished the happy couple much happiness, prosperity and long life.

MICHIGAN METERS

We are indebted to Ed Ellis for a story about some Michigan parking meters.

It seems a county seat town got the meter fever and installed the things. One of the choice meter sites was around the court house square. Immediately a house went up, from the farmers who couldn't see why they had to pay for parking space when they came to town to do some business at the court house.

The county board of supervisors sided with the farmers, and proved to the city the county owned the land on which the meters were placed. Result: meters had no place on county property, and out they went.

INDIAN SUMMER

We've been having some fine Indian summer days since the big freeze, warm, lazy days that remind one of "spring fever" time. A haze in the air and a soft yellow light shining through the turning leaves, little flies and bugs—all add up to a perfect Indian summer period.

The old adage says Indian summer was the period of the last hunt before winter came. Well, a lot of other folks like to take advantage of these days for hunting and others like to just hike through the country.

A LIVE GROUP

A chicken house, or at least what used to be one, for a meeting place hasn't daunted folks of the Palatine South Plum Grove area from forming an up-and-coming South Plum Grove Community club.

The meeting place is Johnny Nelson's chicken house. It is now equipped with a piano and serves the group as a meeting place until something different can be found.

"The Plum Grove Newsletter", a breezy little monthly sheet, is one of the features of the club's work. The organization was started more than a year ago with Johnny Nelson as president.

Bob Angley is the new president. The new organization has already been recognized by the community by the appointment of W. J. Freeman as a member of the Palatine police commission.

PROTECTED

We wondered for days how Elmer Walter kept those fine "mum" plants on display in the Sanitary market from freezing.

One day we saw Elmer and asked how come. "I had them in the garage," was his answer, and that's a simple enough explanation. And a lot of people have been surprised and pleased to find their "mum" plants in the garden didn't completely freeze over after all.

The blooms which were open at the time of the freeze were black the next morning but since then lots of the small buds have grown and bloomed, and many a beautiful bouquet of flowers have been picked from what everyone thought were plants completely frozen over.

WHERE TO LIVE

We were talking to John Gage the other morning about beautiful fall weather we were having, and John remarked he didn't like damp or cold weather, nor did he like it too hot in the summer.

Our weather likes and dislikes coincide, but neither of us could figure out where we should live to get just the kind of weather we want all the time, so we'll no doubt continue to live where we are which is about as good a place as any that can be found.

THAT WALLACE CORN

We keep seeing some fine specimens of pioneer corn which so many farmers grow around here. That corn, you know, is the corn of Henry Wallace, who made famous the pioneer brand of hybrid corn.

Evidently from election results, farmers of the corn belt think a lot more of Wallace corn than they do of Wallace for president.

EXPLANATIONS

We heard a good story the other day about one Palatine alderman who had a lot of explaining to do to his wife.

It all came about when we reported in the Enterprise the village board adjourned at 9:30 p. m. one night, the earliest in history. Well, it seems the alder didn't get home 'til midnight with the excuse "board meeting."

His wife had several questions to ask, however, when the paper came out.

"I got by all right, though," he stated, no doubt by telling his wife how many committee meetings there were after the board session.

SWEET POTATOES

This may not be the Sunny South where sweet potatoes abound, but you can raise good "sweets" in this country just the same.

We tried some home-grown sweets this season from the Lewanski and Hackbarth gardens and they were just as good as the Southern brand. As we ate a mouthful of those delicious yams, we thought we were back on the shores of the Gulf coast, where we used to raise and ship those things by the carload.

INTERESTING HOBBY

The youngsters of the French family in Palatine Park had an interesting and instructive hobby this summer. They collected butterflies and moths and put the butterflies in all stages of development from worm to cocoon and then butterfly or moth.

This hobby gave the youngsters a lot of pleasure and also educated them in the habits and development of this form of wild life. They took a great deal of pride in exhibiting their interesting collection.

PARKING METERS

Regarding the article in Tales of the Street October 21: Friday, October 22, I went to Arlington Heights for shopping. While there I purchased my weekly supply of groceries and meats, about $12.00.

I then proceeded to get painting supplies, including enamel, linseed oil, wall paper, putty. We picked up five storm sash in which glass had been replaced, visited the local bakery, and had "coffee and" at a local restaurant.

All this cost me not one penny for parking, nor did I have to walk three blocks with loaded arms and aching back. I enjoy the weekly trip, and have neighbors who do the same.

We are the laughing stock of surrounding communities! Palatine—with three business blocks and parking meters to drive out what small business there would be. It would be funny if it weren't so pitiful! And just one year ago, Chicago commuters would pull up under the very nose of the Palatine police (and a two-hour parking sign) hop the train to work, come home 8 or 9 hours later and hop in their car again. A parking ticket? Never!

Palatine will never get one penny from me for parking. Why should I pay to park on streets I already have helped pay for and help to maintain?

Disgusted, Palatine

HOORAY FOR TEEN AGERS

After assisting at the Youth Center Halloween party Saturday night and seeing what a fine bunch of teen agers there are in Arlington Heights, we felt we just had to pass on a few words of praise in favor of that often "knocked" group.

The splendid turnout was gratifying in itself. It proved the Youth Center's drawing power, that boys and girls preferred to be there than to get into mischief on the streets.

Those kids behaved wonderfully well and we feel they deserve a "pat on the back."

JUST AROUND THE CORNER

DEAR JANE:

"NOVEMBER'S CHILD"

After the lavish summer And the riot and color of fall, As autumn fades into winter, Comes the month that is best of all.

Not for the all-day twilight Low on the distant hills, Not for the cosmic languor Of landscape, river and rills, Nor for the first fair snowflakes Nor the tang nor the autumn zest.

Nor the crown of the month, Thanksgiving, Do I love November best, But because I can call her mother.

For first in the fleecy gray Of the month that ends the autumn, I looked on the light of day."

I share this verse of Martha Tumeys, for I, too, saw "the light of day" in November—the 5th, to be precise.

The editor of the Line O' Type column in the Tribune would immediately say: "November 5th, did you say? A very special day in England—Guy Fawkes Day." And I can well remember my mother invariably reminding me on anniversaries that: "Your grandmother, who spent her early years in England, often told about the great celebrations on November 5th in that country, much like our own Fourth of July," she added, to give me an idea of the very special day on which I was born.

When Mr. Collins ended his column one day last week with the statement that the Line Books for this year would appear at the News stands on Guy Fawkes Day, November 5th, he reminded me that my natal day anniversary was just around the corner, and that just around the corner, in a very old English publication here at the farm.

According to "The Every-Day Book", published in London 1825, for William Hone by Hunt and Clarke, Tavistock Street, Covent Garden, November 5th was also commonly called Gunpowder Treason, and has been kept as an anniversary from 1605, when a plot was discovered to blow up the King, James the first, the Prince of Wales, and the Lords and Commons assembled in parliament. It seems the conspirators, numbering thirteen and headed by Guy Fawkes, servant to a Mr. Percy, gathered together in the old King's-Head Tavern, in Leadenhall street. They were religious fanatics. When they were discovered it was revealed that they had hidden thirty-six barrels of gunpowder under wood stored in Mr. Percy's cellar.

"Guy Fawkes being searched, there were found upon him, a dark lantern, a tinder-box, and three matches. Instead of being dismayed, he boldly said, if he had been taken within the cellar, he would have blown up himself and them together." And he expressed great sorrow that it was not done, saying: "it was the devil and not God that was the discoverer."

Also in Mr. Hone's "Every-Day Book", appears the following: "To keep alive the remembrance of this conspiracy, and in contemplation of its anniversary in 1826, a printed quarter sheet was published, price one penny coloured, and one half-penny plain. It consists of a rude woodcut of "a Guy", carried about by boys, and the subjoined title with the accompanying verses." Of which I will copy only the first verse, the entire poem being too long.

"On the Downfall of Guy Fawkes"

Good gentlefolks, pray, Remember this day, To which your kind notice we bring

Here's the figure of sly, Old villainous Guy, Who wanted to murder the king; With powder a store, He bitterly swore, As he skulk'd in the vault to prepare,

How the parliament too, By him and his crew, Should all be blown up in the air.

So pleased to remember the fifth of November, Gunpowder treason and plot; We know no reason why gunpowder treason should ever be forgot."

Should ever be forgot." Mr. Collins in his column says that we can blame this Guy Fawkes for providing the most overworked colloquialism in our American language. "He is the Guy who put the word 'guy' on the tip of every tongue."

With love, Mary.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them!
Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxins and impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood. If good health is to endure, when the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide disturbance. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all work out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passage are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste.

Diary of European tour includes 'destitution, destruction and death'

Vincent Sadeckys still hope to liberate niece held in Russian zone

by JUNE McDONALD

A two month trip to war-torn Europe was a practical lesson in freedom for Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Sadecky, Arlington Heights, who returned last week from a visit in Poland, Bohemia and Czechoslovakia with eye-witness stories of European destitution and destruction, and with a firmer conviction America is the only free land left on earth.

Mr. and Mrs. Sadecky found relatives in Bohemia living under deplorable conditions. They learned that Russia forces Communism upon the population or eliminates the resistance. She confiscates all flour and wheat raised and ships all food to Russia. When a pig is killed, the owner is allowed approximately ten pounds of meat for family consumption — the remainder must be sent to the government!

PRACTICALLY all eggs must be turned over to the government. Lard and sugar are luxuries. Five DK's (units) a month are allowed for sugar on ration cards and 4 DK will buy one ounce. "In other words, each person may have 1 1/5 oz. of sugar per month," Mrs. Sadecky explained. A family with five children is allowed one quart of milk per day. If there are no children, there is no milk.

Saccharine has replaced sugar in most homes. Mr. and Mrs. Sadecky stayed at one of the better hotels and were served only a small amount of sugar there. "A standing army requires a great amount of food," she said.

AMONG CITIES visited by the Sadeckys, who flew from New York to Prague in 18 hours, were Tatry, Warsaw, Piastany, (a summer health resort) and Mrs. Sadecky's birthplace, Ostrava, Bohemia.

While in Trechin, Mr. and Mrs. Sadecky visited a sister of Walter Kroeber, an architect in Arlington Heights.

Customs officers detained Mr. and Mrs. Sadecky overnight at Petrovice, on the Polish-Bohemian border, because they carried more money on their person than Russia allows to be taken into Poland. The following morning they appeared in court and Mrs. Sadecky's diamond ring and 48,000 crowns were confiscated by the Russians who were undecided whether or not to fine them an additional 200,000 crowns. Russia allows nothing brought into Russian controlled zones that may be put to use.

"Poland is only slightly better situated than Bohemia," stated Mrs. Sadecky. "Their rationing is less severe, but Russians leave them no money with which to buy necessities."

"PERSONS who refuse to sign affidavits to be Communists have their homes and businesses confiscated. Wanton slashing of valuable pictures and stealing of valuables is an everyday occurrence, just as it was when Hitler rode roughshod over Europe."

"A few of the more fortunate men whose businesses have been confiscated by the government are allowed to work at menial tasks in the factories they own. All others are shipped to concentration camps and from there to Siberia. At the concentration camps, all hair is clipped from the doomed men's heads and placed in huge stacks to be forwarded to Russia for filling hair mattresses for the Russians. We saw large stacks of human hair of assorted colors stacked like hay ready for shipment."

"THOSE WHO resist confiscation are shot," commented Mrs. Sadecky. "There is no law — no freedom. If a Russian sees an individual wearing a coat he admires, he takes it from him. No discrimination is shown, be it man, woman or child. Those who own property are so afraid they will be forced to convert to communism they have valuables packed and are prepared to move at a moment's notice. Entire villages have been deserted."

"Children run barefoot, and there are signs of malnutrition everywhere. Adults and children, alike, look old beyond their years and many walk with swollen legs and distended stomachs caused by starvation. The Russians are slowly starving the entire population."

Mr. and Mrs. Sadecky witnessed confiscation of a friend's factory while in Poland and saw five business places closed with the owners sentenced to Siberia for five years because they refused to sign papers saying they were of the Russian party.

RAVAGES OF WAR are most evident in Warsaw. One hundred zloty (equal to a U. S. quarter) is forcibly collected each time a purchase is made as a "donation" to the Russian government to rehabilitate Warsaw.

Russia retains German prisoners in concentration camps used during the past war and have turned the camps into museums to raise money for the Russian cause. They attempt to convince tourists of the fact Russia is more humane than Germany was.

"But they don't tell tourists 50 men are herded from the concentration camp on a work journey each day in charge of a captor. He dares not bring back more than 20 of the original 50 that night for fear he himself, will be shot for returning too many people to ship to Siberia," Mrs. Sadecky stated.

MRS. SADECKY'S niece spent time in a concentration camp and found it so unbearable she cut a deep hole in her leg, hoping authorities would send her out for medical attention. It was useless. She had to resort to ordinary lime she found lying around the camp to prevent gangrene. The girl's mother, who is Mrs. Sadecky's sister, spent her entire life's savings before her daughter was returned to them.

The Sadeckys visited gas chambers at a camp where Germans had sent inmates with soap and towel, supposedly to bath. When 500 or more entered the chamber, a false ceiling was lowered and gas pumped into the room. They also saw huge ovens where bodies were cremated. They were told there were no doctors' certificates at testing life had actually left the bodies before they were burned.

"The more we saw," the Sadeckys said, "the more anxious we became to return to America. Our only wish is to bring our niece here, but the Russians will permit no one to leave Russian occupied zones."

"So it's hopeless, unless she marries an American citizen — then Russians lose control of her. She can then come here within three months time."

Modern Etiquette

by ROBERTA LEE

Q. If a letter is being written to a friend, or a social acquaintance, should the prefix "Mr.", "Mrs.", or "Miss" be used in the signature?

A. No. Sign it "John Smith" or "Mary Allen." Only in business letters written by women is the title "Miss" or "Mrs." used, and this should be enclosed in parentheses.

Q. Is it proper to fold the napkin when one has finished eating?

A. No; leave the napkin lying loosely beside the plate.

Q. Is it obligatory to invite the clergyman to attend the reception after the wedding?

A. It is not obligatory, but it is the courteous thing to do, especially if he is a friend of the family.

Q. Is it obligatory to answer a wedding invitation?

A. If the wedding invitation includes an invitation to the reception, it must be answered promptly. If just an invitation to the marriage ceremony, no answer is required.

Q. Should soup be sipped from the side or the tip of the spoon?

A. Always from the side.

Q. Is it always obligatory that men shake hands with one another when being introduced?

A. Always, unless it is very inconvenient to do so, such as reaching across a table.

Q. What hand should a man use to take off his hat when he stops to speak with a woman?

A. It would be less awkward if he used his left hand, so that the right one is free to shake hands if the woman should offer him her hand.

Q. Should one tip a hotel bell-boy for paging, and what is the amount that is customarily given?

A. Yes, one should tip for paging, and ten cents or a quarter is sufficient.

Q. May one use a spoon for eating peas when dining at a formal affair?

A. No, never. Always use a fork for conveying peas to the mouth.

Q. Is it proper to say to a woman, "Here is a man I want to introduce you to?"

A. No. The man should always be presented to the woman. Say, "Here is a man I want to introduce to you."

Q. What is the correct way to address a young woman president of an organization?

A. "Madam President."

It Happened Here...

Night Of Frost
O, the hunter's moon was cold and dry—
It's gone this many a night and day—
But the hunter who strode
beneath its beam
Walked softly as breath or a frozen dream,
And his breath on the waters
left a skim,
Reflecting the ghostly moon and him.

The woods, bemused, seemed a magic to feel
As he walked and whistled
the leaves to heel;
The leaves in a soft golden shower went,
Their glory in one short night
was spent.
O, moon and hunter, a dream gone by!
The leaves could not follow
but they try,

they try!
"I have a dog," boasted Warren,
"at least I think I have a dog." Warren is the grade school boy next door and the dog he thinks he has is a stray, wearing a collar and evidently some one's lost pet, on the make for a home and master; Warren may have to be content with wishful thinking.

A sweetheart for a winter start!

Want to get off to a good start? Then let your Conoco Mileage Merchant steer you right...

He'll tell you that when it comes to fast, smooth winter starts, a lot depends on having the right kind of oil in your engine. He'll tell you, too, the right oil is winter-grade Conoco Nth Motor Oil. For two reasons:

First, because winter-grade Nth is specially refined for cold-weather performance. It's lighter... freer-flowing. Saves wear on your battery... and on your nerves... because it gives you faster starts.

And second, Nth oil extra-protects against "dry" friction starts... saves wear on engine parts... because it contains a special, added ingredient that actually OIL-PLATES metal surfaces. And this extra film of lubricant stays up... won't all drain down, even overnight! So, if you want to start off right—and right off—on the next wintry morning...

Presenting the younger generation

As David Charles Hoopes (far left) grows older, he will realize he has the distinction of having been "specially selected." David is the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hoopes, 433 S. Highland, Arlington Heights. He has auburn hair and brown eyes and celebrated his second birthday June 16.

Michael Arlington Pelletier (second from left) is the infant son of the E. H. Pelletier's, 302 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights. He is six months old, has brown hair and blue eyes, and has his first tooth. Michael is the Pelletier's first child. Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Pelletier, 302 Evergreen, Arlington Heights, are paternal grandparents and Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Neuses, 1103 W. Euclid Arlington Heights, maternal grandparents.

The two blonde, blue-eyed young ladies are Carol, 10, and Shirley, 5, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. Lange, 223 S. Mitchell, Arlington Heights. They are the Lange's only children. Carol is in the 6th grade at St. Peter Lutheran school and Shirley is in kindergarten. Carol leads an active life, in addition to baton lessons, which interest her immensely, she participates in all Girl Scout activities.

Four year old Ruth Jean (right) is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gritmaker, Portage road, Palatine. She has dark brown hair and blue eyes. Three brothers and four sisters play an important part in Ruth Jean's life. The Gritmaker children attend the Lutheran school in Palatine.

This week's presentation of the younger generation is unique in that all four children pictured are "only" children in their respective families.

Wilbert Eugene Sander, (far left) is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Sander, Evanston, formerly of 421 S. Dunton, Arlington Hts. He is 5 years old, has brown hair and brown eyes, and attends Bethlehem Lutheran kindergarten class. His maternal grandmother, Mrs. George Winkelman, 421 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, said he is a very bright child and is able to say the Lord's Prayer unaided.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Edsall, Rand road, Arlington Heights, are proud parents of Lynda Jo (second from left). Lynda Jo is 1, has brown hair and brown eyes, and was born in Shreveport, La. Mrs. Edsall claimed that although Lynda Jo was born a rebel, they are doing their best to make a yankee of her. Mr. Edsall is on the staff of the Naval Air Station.

Five-year-old

Janet Trever, daughter of the A. N. Trevers, 714 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, (third from left) has brown eyes and golden-brown hair. She entered St. school kindergarten this fall. Janet is a comparative newcomer to Arlington Heights and loves the town. She attends Methodist Sunday school.

James Melvin Harting, (far right) son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Harting, 218 S. Evergreen, Arlington Heights, is 15 months, has blonde hair and blue eyes. His paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harting, 209 N. Pine street, Arlington Hts. James' mother said he was an average child who gets into everything. James was pulling the curtains off the window when we called.

SUE FOR DOWN PAYMENT
Mr. and Mrs. Allen St. Germain have sued Axel Lonnquist, trustee, in the Superior court for the return of a $1,925 down payment they made in 1946 on a contract to build them a house in Mt. Prospect. It was stipulated the cost would be around $12,500. Should this cost be exceeded they were to be allowed to void the contract and receive their payment back. The house cost $16,000 so they elected not to buy it and asked the return of the $1,925. This they claim has not been returned so they filed suit to compel its payment.

Septic tank should be at least 500-gals.

If you're putting in a septic tank this fall, be sure it's at least 500-gallon capacity, cautions Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes.

You'll save yourself plenty of trouble, expensive clean-out operations and eventual expense in replacing your septic tank if you get a 500-gallon size to start with, the farm adviser points out.

A septic tank should never be smaller than 500-gallon working size in the first chamber, regardless of how few people use it, he says. This volume is needed to prevent disturbing bacterial action in the tank each time the plumbing is used.

A 500-gallon septic tank would be roughly 10 times larger than the familiar 55-gallon oil drum, the farm adviser noted.

HE LISTED these cautions in buying or building septic tanks. They come from Frank Andrew, agricultural engineer, University of Illinois college of agriculture:

1. The smallest size for the first chamber below the outlet opening must be at least 500 gallons for a small family—3 to 7 persons—and more than 500 gallons for a larger family.
2. The tank should be durable and watertight. Concrete is probably the best material for building your own tank. You can get pre-cast concrete tanks, but check them for size and quality of material first.
3. If your tank is cylinder-shaped, it must be at least 54 inches, inside diameter, and 500-gallon capacity to meet State Board of Health and FHA specifications for small families.
4. THE TANK outlet must be connected to a properly designed disposal bed with closed ends. If you connect it to a field drain or open ditch, you'll probably have no better sanitation than before you put in your septic tank.
5. Install your septic tank at least 50 feet down the slope, away from the well.
6. Use 4- or 6-inch watertight sewer tile sloped about 1 inch in 5 feet to the tank, and about 1 inch in 25 feet for the open joint tile disposal bed. Generally 40-50 feet of 4-inch disposal tile per person, laid 18-20 inches below the surface, is all right. If the soil is very tight, you may want to bed the tile in gravel.
7. Keep the disposal lines at least 75 feet away from the well, and don't lay them through the vegetable garden.

Escape from punishment is not in accordance with God's government, since justice is the handmaiden of mercy.

—Mary Baker Eddy

Are YOU Going Thru CHANGE of LIFE?
causing you to suffer from HOT FLUSHES?
Does the functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women (37-52 yrs.) make you suffer from hot flushes, feel so nervous, high-strung, irritable, weak? Then do try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. It's famous for this!

Taken regularly—Pinkham's Compound helps build up resistance against such "middle-age" distress. It's what Doctors call a uterine sedative. It positively contains no opiates—no habit-forming drugs. Pinkham's Compound helps nature (you know what we mean). It's also a great stomachic tonic! Any drugstore.

Doctor Ward's Notebook

Recently I have had a number of requests for references to books and pamphlets which parents may use in teaching sex to their children. I have compiled a list for parents as well as for children and present it here for your information. This is admittedly an incomplete bibliography, but will give you a good start. Further information may be obtained from reading lists in many of these books or by writing to this column, care of Paddock Publications.

General information for parents:

The Parents' Manual, by Anna Wolf, Simon & Schuster, Chap. 6.

When Children Ask, by Marguerite Bro. Willet, Clark. We The Parents, by Sidonie Gruenberg, Harper, Chap. 6. Personal Problems of Every Day Life, by Lee Travis and Dorothy Baruch, Appleton-Century.

When Children Ask About Sex, by Child Study Associations of America, 221 W. 57th St., New York, N. Y. How Can We Teach About Sex, by Public Affairs Committee, 22 E. 38th St., New York, N. Y.

Pre-school sex problems:

Baby and Child Care, by Dr. Benjamin Spock, Pocket Book, Pages 299-304.

Emotional Problems of Living, by Drs. English and Pearson, Norton, Pages 72-76.

The Doctor Looks at Love and Life, by Dr. Collins, New Home Library, Pages 13-30.

Those First Sex Questions, by Dr. Thurman Rice, American Med. Association.

Sex Education for the Pre-School Child, American Medical Association.

Parents who want to read up on the sex problems of an adolescent may be interested in these:

Baby and Child Care, Pages 304-306.

Sex Education for the Adolescent Child, American Medical Association.

High Schools and Sex Education, by Benjamin Gruenberg, Obtainable from U. S. Superintendent of Documents.

There are several good books which the children themselves may read.

For children in the lower grades who are able to read but have not reached adolescence, I suggest the following:

The Story of Life, by Dr. Rice, American Medical Assn. Being Born, by Frances Strain, Appleton-Century.

The Wonder of Life, by Levine and Seligman, Simon & Schuster.

Growing Up, by de Schweinitz, MacMillan.

For adolescent boys and girls of high school age the following are recommended:

Life and Growth, by Keliher, Appleton-Century.

How Life Goes On and On, by Dr. Rice, Am. Med. Assn. (For adolescent girls).

Knowing Yourself and Others, by McLean, Holt.

In Training, by Dr. Rice, American Medical Assn. (For adolescent boys).

The Word You Can't Say, by Am. Med. Assn. (For adolescent boys about masturbation).

Making the Most of Your Personality, by Richmond, Rinehart.

The following is a selected list culled from the many books and pamphlets which have been published for young men and women of college age who are preparing for marriage:

Marriages are Not Made in Heaven, by Janet Nelson, Association Press.

Getting Ready for Married Life, by American Medical Association.

Building Your Marriage, by Evelyn Luvall, Public Affairs Comm.

Age of Romance, by Dr. Rice, American Medical Assn. Family Relations.

Preparing for Marriage, by Popenoe, Institute of Family Relations.

The Doctor Looks at Love and Life, Pages 31-63.

Marriage for Moderns, by Henry Bowman, Whittlesey.

Emotional Problems of Living, Pages 313-315.

Marriage and Sexual Harmony, by Oliver Butterfield, Emerson.

Sex Life and Sane Sex Living, by H. W. Long. (These last two are especially good on sexual adjustment in marriage.)

Pamphlets published by the American Medical Association may be obtained through their Bureau of Health Education, 535 N. Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois. Additional information will be provided by the following:

Association for Family Living, 28 E. Jackson St. Chicago.

American Institute of Family Relations, 607 S. Hill St. Los Angeles 14, California.

American Social Hygiene Assn., 1790 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Association Press, 347 Madison Ave., New York, N. Y.

Marine promoted

Silber is now a member of the Volunteer Marine Corps Reserve. During World War II he served with 6th Marine Division during the occupation of China.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

One petition seeks reclassification of his life, or for many years at least—and still he doesn't know them. What they are, deep within their own consciousness, all of their secret aims, heartaches, frustrations and desires which are strictly personal in nature remain a mystery, deep, mysterious, unfathomable. Sometimes it is shame that keeps their lips sealed, or again it is fear of criticism. Sometimes it is some other motive that keeps them forever on guard against the intrusion of friends and neighbors upon their inner sanctuary.

Parents do not know their own children, nor children their parents. There is no way that anyone can creep into that dramatic, fierce conflict between inner desire and frustration.

Perhaps this is as it should be. Perhaps keeping our inner conflicts to ourselves helps us to keep our pride and to live outwardly contented, happy, well rounded lives. But when our own idiosyncrasies and aims bring unhappiness or bewilderment to our friends without just cause, it seems to me that a word of explanation or apology is only right and fair.

I know of an instance where a young man accepted the invitation of a young lady to attend a social event. The young man, who lived some distance away, was put to considerable expense and trouble to attend this function. After the affair was over, the young lady refused to have anything to do with the young man, and offered no explanation whatever for her strange attitude. Confused, unable to think of anything that he had done wrong or anything that he had said which might cause such treatment, he was at first unhappy, then angry, and finally bitterly resentful.

A word of explanation here might have paved the way to friendship, or have given the young fellow a chance to express his regrets at least, and where there is now bitterness, there might have been understanding. It might have helped him to guard against such social error in the future, even though he learned only that one must never block the way of a woman reaching for the stars.

Sometimes it is cruel or unjust to be secretive. Again it might be the right thing to do. One never knows what lies in another's heart and mind.

First of 230 homes opened for inspection near Arlington Heights at $15,000

Lee J. Boston of Leonard W. Besinger & Associates, Inc., Park Ridge builders, announces that the first edition of the 230 home project located on Mitchell avenue between Kirchhoff road and Fairview avenue, Arlington Heights, are open for inspection.

The homes contain six moderately sized rooms comprising a very interesting living room, dining room, tiled cabinet kitchen, breakfast alcove on the first floor and three bedrooms and tiled bath on the second floor. Two of the bedrooms have ample space for twin beds.

All of the buildings are heated with warm air having an oil-fired burner. Some of the features usually not found in this type of home are Fenestra steel sash, insulation, tiled kitchen and bath, decorating of the quality that is furnished, flush doors throughout and the design and thought that is put into these homes in order to make them architecturally correct.

In addition to the above, and in order to make the home more economical to live in and be as a package unit, a one car garage with an overhead door has been provided.
